would reveal the subject of their conference.

It was said the conference at the White House had to do with the question of sending a constitutional representative to Mexico's side, but Secretary Bryan refused to make any statement.

The understanding here is that as soon as the mediators took up a discussion of the internal affairs of Mexico the American commissioners were prepared to suggest that this question could not be well discussed without the presence of a constitutional representative.

MONEY DIVERTED IN NEW HAVEN DEALS
MAY BE RECOVERED

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

Washington, May 23.—Tentative suggestions for the report of the interstate commerce commission to the senate on its investigation of financial affairs of the New Haven railroad are beginning to take form.

Officials of the commission incline to the belief that money improperly diverted from the New Haven treasury to those interested in promoting franchises by which the road is alleged to have been induced of large sums might be recoverable through private suits against those who profited.

Joseph W. Folk, chief counsel for the commission, and his assistants did the active work today beyond making a review of the developments of the past week.

An inquiry has been started into the physical condition of William Rockefeller, to determine whether his testimony can be taken without jeopardizing his health.

Gold Fish Delayed

Shipment to Butts' Drug Store cannot be made until Fall.

Many customers of Butts', Inc., Drug Store were given certificates entitling them to a gold fish, the supply received for distribution having been exhausted before all customers were supplied. The druggist has been making every effort to secure a further supply of the gold fish at once, but will not be able to have them here before fall. Holders of certificates are requested to keep their certificate until the gold fish arrive in the fall.

The following letter from the gold fish man explains the situation:

Butts', Inc.,
Albuquerque, N. M.

Dear Sir—
Replies to your notation on ours of the 11th, wish to advise you it would be useless to make a shipment now, as the fish would only arrive there dead. If the express company would follow our instructions and change the water, there might be a possibility of some of the fish getting through alive, but they do not do it and are not obliged to do it. We will replace your fish in the fall, which is the best we can do.

Very truly yours,
JOSEPH SCHLAGHECK.

ROAD TO TAOS IS
TO BE MADE
MUCH SHORTER

Between Halleck & Howard
and Denver & Rio Grande
Things Will Hum at Caliente Siding.

Coincident with the extensive timber-cutting to be done by Halleck & Howard in the Carson National forest, the Denver & Rio Grande railroad is to put in improvements that will mean not only a shorter road to Taos but benefit to the county east and west of the river at Caliente siding.

Lumberman Wayne, of the divisional department of the district forester, office of the railroad, says he has given Halleck & Howard start on the contract for 117,000 board feet of timber.

The firm has 50 tie hammers at work and has started constructing a railroad from Caliente siding on the Denver and Rio Grande into Vallecito creek.

In connection with the lumber company's operations, the Denver and Rio Grande has made ready to survey at Caliente siding for a station.

The railroad has agreed with the county to provide for general traffic across the Rio Grande at Caliente siding in consideration of the county's building a road to Taos.

That improvement will mean not only a much shorter road to Taos but it will mean a more convenient distributing point for the country east and west of the Rio Grande.

ADVERTISE TIMBER SALE IN MANZANO FOREST

Theodore S. Woolsey, Jr., assistant forester in charge of silviculture, announced today that 1,200,000 feet of timber is advertised for sale in the Manzano National forest, just above Taos in Apoche canyon. The letting of that contract means more business for the Estancia valley.
